this new study powerfully asserts the pivotal importance of the interplay between language and ethnicity which is often underestimated as a component for political stability these leading scholars present five key case studies of south africa algeria canada latvia and senegal all five countries are multilingual nations where language has been a central political issue that has challenged their unity and stability these studies are underpinned by two general comparative and theoretical discussions which analyse how scholars consider social class and economic factors to be the primary sources for political cohesion or of malcontent with the system and the new avenues opened by a focus on issues of language this book will be of great interest to all students and scholars of linguistics language politics and sociology this is a special issue of the leading journal nationalism and ethnic politics after a long period of neglect political scientists are again noticing identity politics hoover's book is beautifully written brief by comprehensive and appropriate for a wide range of undergraduate courses most impressive hoover links micro level processes human development and the construction of individual identities with macro politics the formation and maintenance of organized systems of power examining among other topics gender multiculturalism and the sources and consequences of democracy and authoritarianism alec stone sweet university of california irvine diploma thesis from the year 2010 in the subject south asian studies south eastern asian studies grade 1 3 university of duisburg essen institut für ostasienwissenschaften language english abstract this study is an exploration and analysis of the ideational drivers of the trilateral strategic dialogue tsd that was concluded in march 2006 between japan australia and the united states turning away from materialist explanations of security cooperation the questions of this study are can the conclusion of the tsd and its subsequent evolution be accounted for by a perceived collective identity between the three countries and what is the japanese government's motivation to expand its alliances architecture the last decade provides the timeframe for a qualitative analysis the findings of this study show that the agreement and its following deepening is the result of a strong collective identity constituted by shared norms and democratic values moreover japan targets with the united states and australia the establishment of a multilateral community of democratic states in the asia pacific the results also indicate however that collective identity promises peace between liberal states but is hostile towards non liberal ones
